

Curriculum Vitae of Bruce L. Taylor M.A., M.Div.

tel. 519.824.1888 home
 email bruce@btaylor solutions.ca web www.btaylor solutions.ca
 address 1550 Gordon St., Unit 19, Guelph, ON N1L 1C7

EDUCATION

- Post M.A. Ph.D. studies. Political Economy. Majors: International Politics and Development Economics. University of Toronto, Toronto, Ontario, 1976-1979. Graduate courses and languages complete, dissertation incomplete. Dissertation topic: "The Politics of Natural Disasters: Human Causes and Social, Economic and Political Effects."
- M.A. Political Economy. Majors: International Politics and Development Economics. University of Toronto, Toronto, Ontario, 1975. Dissertation: "The Politics of Altruism: Canadian Development Aid in the Post War Era."
- M.Div. Theology. New Testament, Political Theology, Comparative Religions. Emmanuel College, Victoria University (seven seminaries), Toronto, Ontario and Conrad Grebel College, University of Waterloo, Waterloo, Ontario, 1981-1984.
- Certificate Comprehensive Family Mediation. Institute of Conflict Analysis and Management, Victoria, British Columbia, 2003.
- Certificate Couple and Family Therapy Studies. University of Guelph, Guelph, Ontario, 2009-2010.
- Courses Sex Addiction Therapist, International Institute for Trauma and Addiction Professionals (IITAP), Dr. Patrick Carnes, Carefree, Arizona, 2010.
- AAMFT 11 graduate courses in Individual, Couple and Family Therapy, Couple and Family Therapy Studies, University of Guelph, approved by the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy (AAMFT), 2007-2010.

- Externship Emotionally Focused Therapy, International Centre for Excellence in Emotionally Focused Therapy (ICEEFT), Dr. Sue Johnson, Ottawa, Ontario, 2009.
- B.Ed. History, Environment, ESL, Cooperative Education, Elementary and Secondary School Qualifications, University of Toronto, Toronto, Ontario, 1991.
- B.A. B.A. Honours, Political Science: Major - International Politics, Minor - Economics of Developing Countries, University of Guelph, Guelph, Ontario, 1969-1973.

Graduate work also completed at Ohio State University: International Disasters; University of Wisconsin: Swahili Language; and York University: Business Administration.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Hanoi National University of Education, Lecturer, English Department. Hanoi, Vietnam. Lecturer of English Language, and Academic Writing.

National University of Rwanda, Lecturer, Political Science Department. Butare, Rwanda, Summer 2006. Lecturer of International Politics.

Assistant to the President for programs of Service Learning.

Promoter of the university with other universities in Canada.

Satya Wacana Christian University, Lecturer, English Department. Salatiga, Java, Winter 2005. Lecturer of English Language and Literature, Comparative Religions, Literary Appreciation - Film Component, Introduction to Writing, and Advanced Writing.

Consultant on economic development projects with the Community Services Institute.

Organizer and administrator of a Global Education Program for two Canadian students on a study/service semester at Satya Wacana Christian University and the Salatiga area. The University offered the students an introductory course on Bahasa Indonesia, and Indonesian history, culture, politics, economics, religions, and women's and environmental issues. Student internships included placements as English teachers in elementary government schools and in hospitals, orphanages, and women's environmental centres.

Global Education, Founder and Director, 1994-2001. Founder and Director of study/service abroad and community service programs for secondary school students. Budget $125,000. Can./year; staff: two plus volunteers.

Proposal writing, organization, monitoring, administration and evaluation of study/service semester abroad programs for over 100 students in Thailand, Venezuela, Paraguay, Belgium, Ireland, Germany and France.

Upper Grand District School Board, Teacher, September 1991-1999.
Teacher of grades 9-12 English Literature, Business English, English as a Second Language, and Cooperative Education (experiential, community service courses). Upper Grand District School Board, Orangeville, Ontario, Canada.

House of Commons, Chief of Staff - House of Commons Standing Committee on the Environment, Ottawa, Ontario, September 1989-June 1990.

Associate of the Parliamentary Centre for International Trade and Foreign Affairs, Ottawa, Ontario. Co-author of two major reports on Climate Change and Ozone Depletion. Budget: $200,000. Can./session; staff: three.

Assistant to Committee Chairperson: Hon. David MacDonald, co-author of environmental studies and briefing papers, committee Coordinator, communications strategist, and developer of student education programs.

Community Development Canada, Executive Director, 1985-1990.
Budget: $100,000. Can./year; staff: overseas - two plus volunteers.

Project development, employment programs, fundraising, and implementation in St. Vincent and the Grenadines, Indonesia and Argentina.

International Red Cross, Chief Delegate - Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies, Hurricane Gilbert Operation, Kingston, Jamaica, October 1988-September 1989. Budget: $2,000,000. US; staff: four, plus house construction volunteers.

Co-management and evaluation of $2,000,000. US. of emergency assistance and project development e.g. construction of more than 200 new houses. Author of two manuals of Standard Operating Procedures for International Red Cross disaster and development programs.

International Red Cross, Emergency Aid Coordinator - Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies, Khartoum, Sudan, May 1985-October 1985. Budget: $8,000,000. US; staff: more than sixty Federation Delegates.

Upon his visit to Sudan, Hans Hoegh, Secretary-General of the Federation, offered me one of three new positions of Advisor to the Secretary-General in Geneva. Unfortunately, while I returned to Canada in order to prepare for this position, the funding was withdrawn by the Scandinavian Red Cross Societies.

Proposal writing, organization and implementation, in partnership with the EC, of airbridges and landbridges for food distribution to Darfur and other areas. Developer and manager of the International Red Cross - EC Airbridge of ten C-130 Hercules and Transal 160s, and two Sikorsky helicopters airlifting hundreds of tons of food to Darfur region. Developer and manager of the International Red Cross Landbridge of hundreds of trucks and camels transporting thousands of tons of food to Darfur Region.

International Red Cross, Development Delegate - Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies, Sierra Leone and Liberia Red Cross Societies, Freetown, Sierra Leone, March 1982-August 1982 and May 1980-January 1981.

Writer of a Five Year Development Plan and a One Year Action Plan for the Sierra Leone Red Cross Society, and co-organizer with the local Society of rural development programs and Branch development.

International Red Cross, Delegate Training Course, Instructor, Rome, Italy, 1982.

Mennonite Central Committee, South-East Asia Refugee Coordinator – Mennonite Central Committee, Bangkok, Thailand, 1979-1980.

Proposal writing and project implementation for aid programs in Thailand, Cambodia, Vietnam, Laos and East Timor, co-interviewing and co-selection with Canadian Immigration Officers and matching of over 2000 Indochinese refugees to Mennonite church sponsors in Canada.

University of Calgary, Lecturer, Political Science Department. Calgary, Alberta, Fall 1977. Lecturer of Canadian Foreign Policy, and Canadian-American Relations.

Laurentian University, Lecturer, Political Science Department. Sudbury, Ontario, Summer 1975. Lecturer of Canadian Foreign Policy.

Graceland University, Lecturer. Lamoni, Iowa, Winter Term, 1978. Lecturer of Natural and Human-Made Disasters.

Ohio State University, Disaster Research Associate, Disaster Research Centre, Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio, 1976.

Research of social, economic and political causes and effects of “natural” and human disasters.

HONORS

Conference Speaker of Global Education Programs to the 1997 Conference Board of Canada Conference in Calgary, Alberta, and guest at the 1997 World Congress of AFS Interculture Canada in Montreal, Quebec.

House of Commons Standing Committee on the Environment Delegate to the Globe '90 Environment Conference, Vancouver, British Columbia, March 1990.

Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA) Award for the study of the philosophy and development programs of Sarvodaya Shramadana in Sri Lanka.

Canadian Department of National Defence Ph.D. Research Fellowship for the study of international disasters, 1976-1979.

University of Toronto, Ontario, M.A. graduation with First Class Honours.

University of Toronto, Ontario, Open M.A. Fellowship: 1974-1975.

Victoria University, Ontario, M.Div. graduation with First Class Honours.

University of Guelph, Ontario, Honours B.A. graduation with First Class Honours.

Wilfred Laurier University, Ontario, Ontario Scholarship Student: accepted into university one year before completion of secondary school.

CONSULTANCIES

Missions Health Foundation, Independence, Missouri. Assessment and feasibility studies for development programs in the Dominican Republic.

Dufferin Peel Catholic District School Board. Proposal and organization of secondary school programs for English in Scotland and Spanish in Spain.

Numerous speaking engagements on international development, education, environment and refugee issues.

PUBLICATIONS

Co-writer of “Deadly Releases: Chlorofluorocarbons”, Report of the House of Commons All Party Committee on the Environment, Ottawa, Ontario, 1990.

Co-researcher of “No Time to Lose: The Challenge of Global Warming”, Report of the House of Commons All Party Committee on the Environment, Ottawa, Ontario, 1990.

EXTRA-CURRICULARS

Churches	Speaker at various churches in Canada.
Travels	Over sixty countries in South and East Asia, Middle East, Africa, Latin America, Central America and Europe.
Piano	Grade VIII Piano and Grade II Theory, U. of Toronto.
French	Supply teacher of French at elementary schools in Orangeville, Ontario, Canada.
Theology	Mormon history. Comparison of Egyptian mythology and New Testament writings.
Music	Pipe organ.

PERSONAL DATA

Birth	29 April 1951. Fergus, Ontario, Canada.
Citizenship	Canadian.
Health	Excellent.